AUDIT AND RISK COMMITTEE CHARTER

INTRODUCTION

The primary function of the Audit and Risk Management Committee (the Committee) is to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities to provide Shareholders with timely and reliable financial reports and to safeguard the Company's interests taking into account the reasonable interests of Shareholders, employees, customers, the communities in which the Company operates and other relevant stakeholders through the effective identification, assessment, monitoring and management of risks.

1. AUDIT

The Committee is to serve as a focal point for communication between non-audit and risk committee directors, the external auditors, internal auditors and the Company's management as their duties relate to financial accounting and reporting and controls. The Committee is to assist the board of directors in fulfilling its fiduciary responsibilities as to accounting policies and reporting practices of the company and all subsidiaries and the sufficiency of auditing relative thereto. It is to be the board's principal agent in assuring the independence of the Company's external auditors, the integrity of management, and the adequacy of disclosures to shareholders.

The Committee is to:

- i. Review the following and report the same to the board of directors:
 - a. With the external auditors:
 - a. The external audit plan;
 - b. The evaluation of the system of internal controls; and
 - c. The external audit report.
 - b. Assistance given by the Company's officers to the external auditors;
 - c. Adequacy of the scope, functions, competency and resources of the internal audit functions and that it has the necessary authority to carry out its works;
 - d. The internal audit program, processes, the results of the internal audit program, processes or investigation undertaken and whether or not appropriate action is taken on the recommendations of the internal audit function;
 - e. The half yearly financial reports and full year financial statements, prior to the approval by the board of directors, focusing particularly on:
 - Changes in or implementation of major accounting policy changes;
 - Significant matters highlighted including financial reporting issues;
 - Significant judgements made by management;

- Significant and unusual events or transactions and how these matters are addressed;
 - The going concern assumption;
 - Compliance with accounting standards and other legal requirements.
 - Significant transactions not forming a normal part of the Company's operations; and
 - Significant adjustments proposed by the external auditors.
- f. The policies and procedures for assessment of sustainability and independence of external auditors.
- g. The policies and procedures governing the provision of non-audit services by external auditors.
- h. Any related party transactions and conflict of interest situation that may arise within the Group including any transaction, procedure or course of conduct that raises questions of management integrity;
- i. Letter of resignation from the external auditors, if any; and
- j. Whether there is any reason (supported by grounds) to believe that the external auditors is not suitable for reappointment.
- ii. Consider the nomination of external auditors.
- iii. Review the scope of audit and general extent of the external auditor's examination, including their engagement letter.
- iv. Review with the Company's management, external auditors and the internal auditor, the Company's general policies and procedures to reasonably assure the adequacy of internal accounting and financial reporting controls.
- v. Discuss with the external auditors any relevant recommendations, which the external auditors may have, especially those in their letter of comments and recommendations. Topics to be considered during this discussion include improving internal financial controls, the selection of accounting principles, and management reporting systems. Review written responses of management to the letter of comments and recommendations from the external auditors.
- vi. Evaluate the cooperation received by the external auditors during their examination, including their access to all requested records, data and information. Also, elicit the comments of management regarding the responsiveness of the external auditors to the Company's needs. Enquire the external auditors whether there have been any disagreements with management, which if not satisfactorily resolved would have caused them to issue a non-standard report on the Company's financial statements.
